What an important part of this big business our children's business is if you haven't been here lately.

Don't think of our children's department as it used to be—it now occupies our entire second floor—and an elevator to reach it. Besides, we've now got Children's Hats and Furnishings—and the completest line in Washington of the best Shirt Waists in the world—"The Mother's Friend."

You mothers who want the best for your boys and have been used to paying from $7 to $10 for their suits will find plenty of the same kinds in our $5 to $7.50 grades. We want a bigger children's business—are better able to take care of it since we've enlarged the building—and the quickest way we know to get it is to give you more for your money than you can get elsewhere.
